IV. FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The Chicago School is required to obtain reliable documentation that you have adequate financial resources to meet expenses for your program before your I-20/DS-2019 can be issued. Funding for F-1 visa holders may come through funds from sources such as personal, family, or private loans. Loans of any kind constitute personal funds and do NOT qualify as institutional support, university support, or government funds. Funding for initial J-1 visa holders must have majority government or institutional funding when the institution has an exchange agreement with The Chicago School.

Please outline your anticipated costs and financial support below.

Please be aware that the numbers provided in Proof of Financial Evidence are an estimated average cost for 12 months based on the total required credit hours for your degree program and years needed to complete for a “Normal Length of Study”. Your actual cost for each semester/year will vary based on the actual registered credit hours. Please consult with your Global Enrollment Counselor for details.

To find the minimum amount required for your program for I-20/DS-2019 issuance purposes, review the instructions on the document via the link above. At the end of the document, there is a list of Programs of Study. Find the program you have been admitted to, and you will see the minimum required amount for your program. Enter the numbers in the fields below.
